Copy of letter from the Tahsildar of Vellore to the Treasury Deputy Collector, North Arcot No. A. 3-4854-25 dated 26-8-1925.

Pensioners - Mysore - 763 - Death of Rahimad Bamu - Joint holder - Reported.

Petition of Marima Bi to Mysore Government dated 17-8-25.

Rahimad Banoo, one of the two joint holders of P.P.O. No.7 is stated to have died at Vellore on 4-7-25, leaving behind her, one daughter Marima Bi, the other joint holder of the same P.P.O. Marima Bi has put in a petition for the continuance, in her name, of the pension of Rs. 3-0-0 hitherto jointly enjoyed by her and her deceased mother Rahimad Banoo. From enquiry made in this office it is found that the deceased has no other heir, male or female, than the petitioner. The pension is stated to have been granted on compassion for indigent circumstances to the family of the late Fatima Begum, of whom the petitioner is a descendant. I beg to recommend that the name of Rahimad Bamu (the deceased) may be ordered to be deleted from the P.P.O. and the pension continued to be paid to the petitioner Marima Bi from 1-6-25. The pension was last drawn by them jointly upto the end of May 1925 on 2-6-25.

2. The P.P.Os. (both halves), petition of Marima Bi addressed to the Mysore Government, the Municipal Death Certificate and the records of enquiry are enclosed.
